History Colorado is committed to anti-racism practices across its institution and outlined in these grounding virtues. As such, we encourage members of Black, Indigenous, Latino Hispanic, People of Color, LGBTQ+ and persons with disabilities communities to apply for this internship.

Apply By: September 8, 2024

Desired Schedule: 5 hours/week on Tuesdays or Thursdays anytime between 10-3 (September 23-December 6, 2024).

Broad Scope of Position: The internship will give students the chance to learn and enhance skills in object handling, cataloging, photography, storage organization, and project workflow. This internship will inventory and photograph historical art and furnishings in a public building. The museum will be creating a new storage space that may include setting up shelves, organizing and moving collections, and creating good storage environments.

Outcomes: This internship will provide the student or recent graduate with valuable on-the-job training. Students will participate in a significant collections stewardship project that will introduce them to cataloging, photography, and museum collections deliverables.

Desired Skills & Academic Field of Study: Current or recent undergraduate or Master's student with focus in History, Art History, Anthropology, Library Science, Museum Studies or related fields. Intern needs to be comfortable with working in spaces with the public.

- Ability to follow directions well
- Strong computer skills
- Familiarity working with a camera or phone camera and spreadsheets or related degree programs.

To Apply for this Position: Submit a resume and your answer to the question below to Director of Volunteer Engagement Emily Dobish, emily.dobish@state.co.us.

As a response to the national protests regarding systemic injustice, History Colorado staff came together to discuss as an institutional community the ways in which History Colorado can advance the work of anti-racism. These Grounding Virtues are the result of our collective process.
